November is the month in which we gather to determine the direction of the church for the next year by making our financial pledges and adopting a budget. These pieces are vital to the efficient operation of our congregation. This year the Stewardship Commission also encouraged you to complete a survey indicating where your priorities are within the church. I want to strongly encourage you to take these pieces seriously as we seek to define our life as a body of Christ.

Our culture encourages us to assess the value of church donations from a personal perspective – “What am I getting out of this?” However, I suggest a more faithful perspective would be – “How can I help to ensure others hear the word of salvation available here?” The nature of worship is to be about offering God our praise and the nature of our work is to be about sharing the good news of Christ with others. As Apostles we are to be “theocentric,” with God as the center of our being and our work.

Salvation is not a topic frequently discussed in our denomination as so many of us were literally “born into the faith.” But in this world where more and more adults have had no church experience other than those using scare tactics, do we not have a message of love and acceptance for those who wish to know more about Jesus? Might this be the time when we as a “mainline” protestant church with all theological perspectives from liberal to conservative reach out to those struggling to make sense of their lives in Lancaster and say, “Come as you are ... hurt or discouraged, lonely or lost. You are welcome at Church of the Apostles.”

May we continue to be a place of refuge, a place of hope, and a place of peace in our hurting world!

Blessings & peace,

Pastor Kuhn

COUNCIL MINUTES

September 23, 2013

Excused: Randy Sweigart, Andy Smith

Guests: Don Culp, Don Freeman

Devotions: Pastor Kuhn shared a devotion from Lillian Daniels about a cat who walked by faith not by sight. (II Corinthians) She encouraged us to do the same.

Minutes: Andy/Tom motioned that the minutes be approved as written.

Treasurers Report: Revenues exceeded expenses by approximately $4000. Spending less than last year. Giving is down $25,000 from last year. This financial picture is a huge improvement from previous years. Steve encouraged us all to reach out to those who aren't attending presently. Andy asked if there is a list of those who are not attending.

Executive: Is beginning to consider bonuses for our employees. The marketing plan proposed by George is being discussed but some are concerned about the work that needs to be done within the church before reaching out to new membership.

Old Business:

Commission Change: Erika Neiderer will be joining Parish Life.

Bylaws: The majority of the council meeting was spent discussing and approving 12 changes to the proposed bylaws. This included having the Pastoral Relations Committee being addressed in the Policy and Procedures manual with this language: "Church of the Apostles is committed to providing a pastoral relations committee for any pastor who chooses to have one. Five members will be chosen by the pastor and approved by council to provide counsel and support to the pastor. The members will determine the form and frequency of their meetings."

A vote was taken to send the revised version to the congregation for its consideration and it passed 12/2 with one abstention.

There will be three opportunities for the congregation to ask questions and give feedback about both the bylaws and budget. Those times are: Sunday, October 6th 9:15-11:15, Wednesday, October 9th 1:30-2:30 and 6-7pm. Council is welcome to continue giving input during these sessions.

Jane McCartney is our laity volunteer of the year. Congratulations Jane!

New Business:

Council Meeting Place: Council will be meeting in the parlor because the sanctuary will be occupied in the upcoming months.

CIA-Commission Interaction Activity: Commissions will be meeting October 14th at 6:30 in Fellowship Hall to eat and interact. Come with an open mind and expect to get out of your comfort zone!

Reports from Pastor, Staff and Commissions:

Cathy: Worship design team is going to have a retreat at Cathy Kenlin's house from 10-3 on September 28th.

Julie: passed around a sign-up sheet for soup production.

Andy: We have passed the $10,000 goal for the school in Honduras! Any additional funds will help with the shipping costs of desks. The school is already named but COA will have a building named after it. On a "to be determined date" a video will be shown at both services and a ceremonial check will be presented from the congregation. There will be information on CARE's website about going to Honduras the last week in January for the dedication. The walk/run fundraiser will be on October 12th.

Karen: welcomed Erika to Parish life. There will be a hayride for Trunk or Treat, Saturday, October 26th. Karen will be starting a "Want Ad" section in the Crown for volunteers.

George: Pledge campaign will be starting soon. A questionnaire will be part of the process with the pledge cards and there will be 5 weeks of stewardship moments. The budget is in draft form and George noted that it has been decreasing the past five years. He discussed a marketing program that would focus on the prevalence of stress in society as a whole. "Stressed/Burned Out? God will listen." Materials (post cards) would refer to our website and programming...yoga, basketball.

Steve: asked about the bridge that was being repaired in Rader Park. One of the neighbors has donated $1500 towards the bridge.

Tom Flory: Tom removed his motion from the previous council meeting and shared that he will be moving to Portland in 10 days. He will be missed. Godspeed Tom!

Jane: Wishing Well Christmas project this year will be to fill backpacks and send to the children at the new school in Honduras.

Cindy Williams: asked about the shelving for the refrigerators. Property is looking into it.

Worship: Asked for council to show its support for the combined Christmas Eve service at 7 pm. The majority thought it is a good idea but emphasized the importance of balancing the new cantata with traditional aspects of our previous Christmas Eve services.

Don Freeman commented on our mixed responses to the proposed bylaws and encouraged us to keep working.

Meeting adjourned 9:20 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Julie Berkow
Council Secretary

CHRISTMAS IN THE COUNTRY BAZAAR

Saturday, November 9, 2013
9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

It's time to begin your Christmas shopping. You will want to make a day of it at the Christmas in the Country Bazaar here at the Church of the Apostles. Tell your friends and relatives about our Bazaar.

More importantly, are you able to help make our Bazaar a better success? This is an all church endeavor. There are jobs for everyone no matter what your age or physical condition. If you have not been contacted and wish to be a part of the Bazaar, please be in touch with Ellen Schellenberger at 392-3641 ejschellenberger@comcast.net, or Eileen Thomas 872-7656 eileenthomas@verizon.net.

The week before the Bazaar the kitchen will be buzzing with activity with folks making the soup which is always a highlight of the lunch time crowd. Please consider chopping up veggies, cutting up chicken and being available to place soup in containers ready to be sold. The kitchen will be busy each day of the week. Contact Julie Berkow 394-8233 if you can lend a hand.

Friday the kitchen is turned over to the pie bakers. Traditionally, the Bischoff family and others have made oodles of pies for our pleasure. If you have not placed your order, please do so quickly. Forms are available at the Welcome Center in the narthex.

This year 69 crafters will be set up around the church in every nook and cranny possible. Some crafters have been a part of our Bazaar for many years. This year there will be a few new crafters. Make sure you bring your Christmas list with you to purchase the wares sold by our skilled crafters.

If you need a rest, the sanctuary will be providing music for your listening pleasure.

Apostles Cupboard

Apostles Cupboard will again be featured in the church craft room 310 during the Bazaar. We will be offering a variety of special delights to please the palate while you shop or to use as gifts. We will need donations of homemade holiday goodies to sell. Items such as jam, nuts, pickles, candies, fudge, cookies, crackers, teas, sauces, mixes, oils, and packaging makes an attractive presentation. Donations may be dropped off in room 310 in the west wing on:
Wednesday, November 6 from 4 –7 pm
Friday, November 8 from 4--7 pm

For more information, call Linda Schock at 569-3837 or Dawn Dougherty at 892-0350.

Celebrating Local Children's Writers: Heritage & Horizons & On the Horizon Welcome Sandy Asher and Amanda Kemp Tuesday, November 5

Calling all who love literature – all who love the theater – all who love children – all who love Lancaster County – and especially all who love some combination of these four: our upcoming morning of Celebrating Local Children's Writers is an event you won't want to miss!

On Tuesday, November 5, Heritage & Horizons, the adult learning division of Apostles Academy of Arts & Sciences, welcomes local children's author Sandy Asher and local children's playwright Amanda Kemp. This special "On the Horizon" event will conclude the Fall 2013 "All About Lancaster County" season of Heritage & Horizons. In addition to free child care and refreshments included with your paid registration, Ms. Asher will have signed copies of several of her works available for sale, at a specially discounted price, during the break. (Start making your Christmas shopping lists now!)

Ms. Asher has written over two dozen books for young readers, including the award-winning Too Many Frogs!, and edited five anthologies, including With All My Heart, With All My Mind, winner of the National Jewish Book Award for children's literature. She has also written several dozen plays, many of them for young audiences. Dr. Kemp is artistic director of Theatre for Transformation, a Lancaster-based company she founded that tours plays about African-American history for schools, colleges, and other community settings. TFT's plays have received awards from the Pennsylvania Humanities Council, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and other organizations.

Asher and Kemp will tell stories of their careers writing for children and answer audience questions. Those who have not yet participated in our fall series may register on a walk-in basis, beginning at 9:15, for the special one-day price of only $5 per adult. Please join us in the sanctuary on Tuesday, November 5 from 9:30-11:45 am for this special event!

Outreach

C.A.R.E. !!!

In a little over two months, the congregation of Church of the Apostles raised enough money to build a school in rural Honduras for about 50 students. A remarkable achievement, even more so when the total raised was over $11,000.00!

Working with a Lancaster based charity, Central American Relief Efforts [CARE], through its executive director and Apostles church council member Andy Appel, Church of the Apostles will provide the shelter for these students who have been learning outdoors, using rocks and stumps as their chairs and desks. The two room school will be an enormous improvement for the students and a source of pride for the remote and impoverished village of Los Ranchos de Esquimay. The villagers, helping to make this a reality, are "finishing" the last 1/2 mile of "road" to their village that will then allow four wheel drive vehicles to get to them, bringing the supplies for the school that otherwise would have been delivered by horse [and human] back.

The project has captured the imagination of Church of the Apostles. Nate Sheffer is writing a song the Children's Choir will record [in Spanish] for the schoolchildren at the school. The Advent project will provide a backpack, filled with school supplies [and more essentials] for each child. The Turtle Project is sending a personalized turtle--with a message for each student--prepared by Sunday School classes.

Kristi Philips, who works for CARE, will be in Honduras in later October and will be visiting the village where the school is being built. She's going to bring the name and age of each child back for our projects. Pictures will be posted at church as they become available so we can track the progress during construction.

And the last big excitement is.....a group from Church of the Apostles will go to Honduras from January 26 through January 31. The trip will start with the dedication of the school! Church of the Apostles will be permanently recognized at the school. Those on the trip will assist in two medical clinics at rural villages, visit children at an orphanage and experience the warmth of the Honduran people. Pastor Kathy has information about the trip if you are interested. Andy Appel, Pastor Kathy and Nate Sheffer are leading the group!

Please contact Pastor Kathy Kuhn if you are interested in joining those going to experience one of the most satisfying and heart-warming times in their lives!!

Wishing Well

Our last Wishing Well ministry, to support the Apostles Assistance Fund, was a huge success! Pastor Kuhn will be able to assist many people with the wonderful supplies which we collected. Many thanks to all of you generous givers!

I am really excited about our Holiday project which will be to provide the fifty Honduran students and teachers with backpacks filled with school supplies to get them started on the right foot in their new school! I am so proud of COA for raising the funds for this school in Honduras! As always, I am proud to be a member of such a giving congregation! Once again, this Holiday project will be in partnership with the Preschool. The Preschool has always been very generous in helping us with our Holiday ministries. We are doing this project a bit differently than we did two years ago when we filled backpacks for Head Start. This year the congregation will fill 25 backpacks and the preschool will fill the other 25. The congregation will fill ours at the Advent workshop on December 1st. Once again, there are two display boards with information on the specific items needed. One board is above the Wishing Well (in the cloak room) and the other is on the Outreach bulletin board in the Narthex. Please choose an item or items to donate and return them to the well by Sunday, November 24th. That will give us time to sort them out for the production line at the workshop. I think that it will be very exciting to spread Holiday cheer all the way to Honduras and give these students, not only the school, but the supplies needed to provide them with the education they deserve! Thank you so much! Any questions? – please see Jane McCartney.

Church Of The Apostles' Laity Volunteer of the Year: Jane McCartney

As the heart and soul of our church's Wishing Well ministry, Jane McCartney was honored at the 2013 Lancaster Association Laity

Recognition banquet as Church of the Apostles' laity volunteer of the year. Wishing Well is a ministry that collects items for those in need locally, nationally, and internationally. For the past three years, Jane has thoughtfully chosen four to five causes each year, determined the needs, and with warm, creative, and enthusiastic publicity enlisted the participation of the congregation. She then serves as our church's ambassador, delivering the needed items and always making a personal connection with the recipients. A few examples of how Wishing Well has helped others are: gathering needed supplies for residents of local non-profits, sending school supplies to children in Joplin, MO, and collecting holiday gifts for the children in Head Start. The final Wishing Well project for 2013 will be gathering back packs and school supplies for 50 Honduran children to use in their first ever "actual" school. Her faith, warmth, and caring heart truly shine forth through this ministry and we as a church are better for it.

THANK YOU JANE!

Thank You!

To Church of the Apostles:

I was surprised when I saw Karl and Doris Krammes at my hospital room door bearing a lovely bouquet of flowers. Thank you all for these lovely flowers and the Krammes' for delivering them. It was a nice surprise.

Most Sincerely,
Lavinia Brackbill

Church of the Apostles,

Thank you so much for the wonderful flowers I found on my desk on Monday, October 7! I wish all of you the best in the years to come.

Not only providing a physical symbol of beauty during our worship, after the service they are given as a symbol of love and caring to a member of our community who is unable to be with us physically. The cost of our flowers and bulletins averages about $140.00 a week. Our suggested contribution for sponsoring flowers and bulletins is $35.00; however, any amount is welcomed and appreciated.
